

Hollins Abroad-Paris

Anne Gregory Paris Fellowship

The Anne Gregory Paris Fellows Endowment was established by friends in memory of Anne E. Gregory, Class of '58, to provide financial assistance to students participating in the Hollins Abroad-Paris program who have demonstrated financial need and have a genuine interest in the study of French language and culture. One or more Anne Gregory Paris Fellows may be selected each term to receive funds to meet expenses not covered by the comprehensive fee, such as trans-Atlantic transportation, theatre and concert tickets, and cultural excursions within France. The funds are intended both to make possible and to enhance the Anne Gregory Fellow's cultural experience in France.

Anne Gregory Paris Fellows are chosen by the faculty member serving as the French Department's Hollins Abroad-Paris liaison, in consultation with the other members of the French Department and with assistance from the Director of International Programs and the Director of Scholarships and Financial Assistance. Recipients are chosen from among applicants on the basis of financial need, academic merit, and enthusiasm for and commitment to the study of French language and culture. Except in extraordinary cases, a Gregory Fellowship is not awarded for more than one term.

Eligibility Requirements

Recipients of the Anne Gregory Paris Fellowship must

- Be eligible for need-based aid
- Meet the requirements for admission to the Hollins Abroad-Paris program
- Have taken two or more French courses at Hollins University (exceptions may be made for transfer students, who must, however, have taken at least one French course at Hollins)
- Have a GPA of at least 3.25 in French courses taken at Hollins University
- Have demonstrated enthusiasm for and commitment to the study of French language and culture
- If chosen, agree to communicate with a representative of the fund's donors through the Hollins development office upon receipt of the award and at least once during the term abroad; submit to the French Department, no later than one month after her return to campus, a written description of how the funds were used and how they contributed to her experience; speak with French classes about her experiences abroad; and participate in Hollins Abroad-Paris information and orientation sessions.

For more information or an application, see Prof. Jean Fallon in the French Department or Kirsten McKinney in the International Programs office.

Application deadlines are March 31 for fall term and October 31 for spring term.

P.O. Box 9597, Roanoke, Virginia 24020-1597
(800) 511-6612 • Fax: (540) 362-6693
E-mail: abroad@hollins.edu
Web site: www.hollins.edu

Hollins Abroad-Paris

Application for Anne Gregory Paris Fellowship

Name
Major	Class
French Courses Taken at Hollins
Other Courses and/or Experiences Related to French Culture

Please submit the following with this application:

- 1) an essay no longer than one page describing how your academic and personal choices have reflected “enthusiasm for and commitment to the study of French language and culture.”
- 2) An estimate of travel and other costs (passport and visa fees, additional cultural events/excursions, etc.) not covered/included in the Hollins comprehensive fee; and
- 3) A personal statement describing your situation and explaining any unusual circumstances which you feel should be known to the scholarship committee.

Application deadlines:

March 15 for fall term, October 1 for spring term.

P.O. Box 9597, Roanoke, Virginia 24020-1597
(800) 511-6612 • Fax: (540) 362-6693
E-mail: abroad@hollins.edu
Web site: www.hollins.edu